PATRIOTS VS. JAGUARS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Jaguars will meet for the ninth time overall and for the first time since New England claimed a 31-20 victory in a Divisional Playoff game at Gillette Stadium on January 12, 2008.

The Patriots have won all four of the regular-season games between the clubs. The two teams have faced each other four times in the playoffs, including the 1996 AFC Championship Game at Foxboro Stadium, a 20-6 New England win. The Patriots lead the Jaguars 3-1 in postseason games.

The Jaguars will visit Foxborough for the sixth time overall, with the Patriots having won all five previous games against the team in New England. Two of the wins were in the regular-season and three were postseason wins.

Three of the six previous games between the teams in Foxborough have been playoff games. The first playoff game was the 1996 AFC Championship Game at Foxboro Stadium. In that contest, the Patriots beat the Jaguars 20-6 to advance to Super Bowl XXXI. The Jaguars claimed a 25-10 win in the 1998 Wild Card playoffs. The Patriots won 28-3 in a 2005 Divisional Playoff game and 31-20 in a 2007 Divisional Playoff game.

QUICK HITS

- In winning seven of eight total contests in the series, the Patriots have won 88 percent of their games against the Jaguars. The only other teams against which the Patriots have won at least 80 percent of their games are the Baltimore Ravens (5-0) and Houston Texans (2-0).
- The Jaguars are one of just four teams against which the Patriots own an undefeated home record (6-0). The Patriots are 3-0 at home against Baltimore, 3-0 against Chicago and 1-0 against Houston.

PASSING PERFORMANCES

Tom Brady will face off against the Jaguars for the third time in his career in the regular-season. Brady has also played Jacksonville two times in the postseason.

Jacksonville Jaguars	0	3	0	0	—	3
New England Patriots	0	7	14	7	—	28

The Patriots advanced to the divisional playoffs for the third straight season with a 28-3 win over Jacksonville. After a back-and-forth first half from which the Patriots took a 7-3 halftime lead, New England broke the game open with three second-half touchdowns as the Patriots defense kept Jacksonville off of the scoreboard. Tom Brady threw three touchdown passes – to Troy Brown, Benjamin Watson and David Givens. Watson's highlight-reel 63-yard scoring play in the third quarter gave the Patriots a commanding 21-3 lead, while Asante Samuel's 73-yard interception return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter put the exclamation point on an NFL-record 10th consecutive playoff win.

1996 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
NEW ENGLAND 20, JACKSONVILLE 6

The Patriots defense continued its great performance during the 1996 playoffs during their 20-6 win over the Jaguars. The patriots were able to shut down Jaguars RB Natrone Means and contain QB Mark Brunell. Means was held to 43 yards, and Brunell passed for only 190 yards and threw two interceptions. The Jaguars had one final attempt to score. With the Patriots in front 13-6 with 2:36 left, LB Chris Slade knocked the ball from RB James Stewart. CB Otis Smith grabbed the loose ball out of the air and ran 47 yards for the touchdown.

	1	2	3	4		Final
New England Patriots	0	10	7	7	—	24
Jacksonville Jaguars	0	7	7	7	—	21

The Patriots clinched their fourth consecutive division title and qualified for the playoffs with a 24-21 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars on the road. Tom Brady completed 71.8 percent of his passes, marking his highest completion rate of the season as he totaled 249 yards and a touchdown. Rookie tight end David Thomas paced the Patriots receiving corps, totaling a career-high 83 yards on a career-best five catches, while hauling in his first career touchdown pass on a 22-yard laser from Brady in the third quarter.

On the defensive side of the ball for New England, the game was highlighted by a game-clinching turnover, as Jarvis Green forced the Jaguars' David Garrard to fumble as he sacked him with 1:46 left in the game and Jacksonville trailing by only a field goal. Rodney Harrison, returning to the lineup after a six-game absence, pounced on the loose ball to give possession back to New England and allow the Patriots to run out the clock and seal the win.

STRONG IN THE SECOND HALF

Since 2001, New England has done a remarkable job of finishing the season strong, compiling a 74-20 (.787) record after Nov. 1, including playoff games.

LAST WEEK: PATRIOTS-BILLS

PATRIOTS 17, BILLS 10

December 20, 2009 ★ Ralph Wilson Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	14	3	0	17
Buffalo Bills	3	0	0	7	10

The Patriots extended their winning streak to 13 straight games over the Buffalo Bills with a 17-10 win at Ralph Wilson Stadium. It was also the Patriots first road win in the continental USA. More importantly, the Patriots inched closer to the AFC East Division title with Miami and the Jets both falling to 7-7 with losses.

The Patriots victory was aided by 11 Buffalo penalties for 124 yards, including 104 penalty yards in the first half. New England's first two scoring drives were set up by costly pass interference penalties.

While QB Tom Bray was just 11-of-23 for 115 yards, WR Randy Moss had a good game with five receptions for 70 yards and a 13-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter. His score marked the ninth 10-touchdown season of his career, matching the NFL record set by Jerry Rice.

Despite playing without starting NT Vince Wilfork and DE Ty Warren due to injury, the New England defense limited Buffalo to 241 net yards, including 94 yards in the second half. LB Tully Banta-Cain set a career-high with a three-sack performance, all of which came in the fourth quarter. Overall, the Patriots registered six sacks.

Buffalo opened the game with a nine-minute drive that ended in a field goal, and then intercepted the Patriots to end their first offensive series to take a 3-0 first quarter lead. New England scored 14 points in the second quarter with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Brady to Moss and a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Laurence Maroney. A 43-yard pass interference call against Buffalo set up a first down at the Buffalo three-yard line on the first score. Then, a 21-yard pass interference call gave the Patriots a first down at the 1-yard line on the second touchdown drive.

New England added a field goal in the third quarter to take a 17-3 lead heading into the final quarter of play. Buffalo squandered a few opportunities to get back into the game. They reached the New England 28-yard line at the end of the third quarter before a penalty pushed them out of field goal range. Later in the fourth quarter, Buffalo drove to the New England 10-yard line where they elected to go for the first down on a fourth-and-11 situation. QB Ryan Fitzpatrick's pass fell incomplete and the Bills turned the ball over on downs. After stopping the Patriots on the ensuing drive, a 20-yard punt return helped position Buffalo for an 11-yard touchdown pass from Fitzpatrick to WR Lee Evans to close to 17-10 with just over three minutes remaining in regulation. However, on Buffalo's onside kick attempt, they were called for offsides and kicked the ball deep on the ensuing kick. New England was able to run off the final minutes to gain their ninth win of the season.

ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENT

With their ninth win of the season, the Patriots have won more than half of their games for the ninth straight year. They are the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993 and the fifth team to do so since the 1970 merger, joining the 49ers, the Cowboys, the Raiders and the Steelers.

RANDY MOSS REGISTERS 10TH TD OF THE SEASON

WR Randy Moss scored on a 13-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to record his 10th touchdown of the season. Moss now has nine 10-plus touchdown seasons to tie Jerry Rice for the most NFL seasons with 10-plus receiving touchdowns.

MOSS IS THE FIRST PATRIOT TO RECORD THREE SEASONS OF 10-PLUS TOUCHDOWN CATCHES

Moss is the first Patriots player to record three 10-plus touchdown seasons with 23 in 2007, 11 in 2008 and 10 so far in 2009.

MOSS MOVES INTO PATRIOTS TOP TEN IN SCORING

The 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter moved Moss into the Patriots' all-time top 10 in scoring. He entered the Buffalo game with 260 points and moved past Tony Collins (264) into 10th place with 266 points. Jim Nance is in ninth place with 276 points.

SLATER HAS FIRST TOUCH ON OFFENSE

Matthew Slater had his first offensive touch when he took a handoff on an end-around for a 6-yard gain in the second quarter.

LAURENCE MARONEY SCORES NINTH TD OF SEASON

Laurence Maroney scored his ninth touchdown of the season on a one-yard run in the second quarter. The Patriots have had a player rush for 10 touchdowns or more in a season 11 times with the most recent being Corey Dillon's 13 rushing touchdowns in 2006.

PATRIOTS HAVE FIRST SEASON SINCE 1996 WITH TWO PLAYERS WITH NINE OR MORE TOUCHDOWNS

The Patriots have two players with nine or more touchdowns for the first time since 1996 with Moss (10) and Maroney (9). It is the sixth time in team history it has happened (1996, 1976, 1974, 1966 and 1961 are the others).

WES WELKER SETS CAREER-HIGH IN RECEIVING YARDS

Wes Welker set a career-high in receiving yards on a 5-yard pass from QB Tom Brady in the third quarter to surpass the 1,175 yards he had in 2007. He finished the game with 40 yards to push his 2009 total to 1,198 yards. That total is fourth all-time in New England history behind 1,493 by Randy Moss in 2007, 1,491 by Stanley Morgan in 1986 and 1,199 by Troy Brown in 2001.

TULLY BANTA-CAIN HAS CAREER-HIGH THREE SACKS TO SET HIS SINGLE SEASON CAREER HIGH

LB Tully Banta-Cain set a career-high with three sacks to push his 2009 season total to 8.5. His previous best for a season was 5.5 in 2006 with the Patriots. It is his third game in 2009 with at least two sacks and the fifth time in his career that he has had at least two sacks in a game. All three of his sacks came in the fourth quarter.

PATRIOTS CLOSE OUT THE AFC EAST REGULAR SEASON SCHEDULE

The Patriots closed out the 2009 AFC East schedule with a 4-2 record. It is the Patriots' ninth consecutive winning record in AFC East play.

PATRIOTS EXTEND WINNING STREAK OVER BUFFALO

The Patriots extended their winning streak to 13 games over Buffalo. The 13-game winning streak is for the fourth longest winning streak in NFL history.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

MILESTONES APPROACHING

The number of 10-plus reception games Wes Welker needs in 2009 to match the single-season NFL record of seven set by Houston's Andre Johnson in 2008. Welker has six 10-plus reception games so far this season.

The number of 300-yard passing games Tom Brady (7) needs to match his single-season high. He had eight 300-yard games in 2007.

The number of touchdown passes Tom Brady (24) needs to register his fifth season with 25 or more touchdowns. If he reaches 25 TDs, he will tie Drew Brees for the fifth most seasons with 25-plus TDs in NFL history.

The number of receptions Wes Welker (109) needs to surpass the team-record of 112 he set in 2007.

55

The number of passing yards Tom Brady (3,945) needs to post a team-record third season with at least 4,000 passing yards. Brady is tied with Drew Bledsoe with two 4,000-yard seasons.

STREAKING

The number of consecutive seasons in which the Patriots have won nine or more regular-season games. They are the only team in the NFL to have won at least nine games in each of the last eight seasons entering 2009.

22

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have won when Tom Brady starts, including the postseason.

168

The number of consecutive home games the Patriots have sold out. The streak includes every preseason, regular-season and playoff game since the 1994 regular-season opener.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The number of consecutive seasons Randy Moss has recorded 10 or more touchdown catches to become the first Patriots player with three seasons of 10-plus TD catches. He had 23 in 2007, 11 in 2008 and now 10 in 2009. His nine seasons of 10 or more touchdowns tie Jerry Rice for the NFL record.

Wes Welker and Randy Moss became the first Patriots to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons last season and have now stretched that to three straight 1,000 yard seasons after going over 1,000-yards at Miami three weeks ago.

The number of seasons that Wes Welker has reached 100 receptions (109 in 2009) to join Marvin Harrison (4), Jerry Rice (3) and Herman Moore (3) as the only players to catch 100 passes in three consecutive seasons.

The number of NFL receivers who have reached 14,000 receiving yards. Randy Moss became the seventh player to reach the milestone and now has 14,126 receiving yards.

The number of seasons that Tom Brady has passed for more than 3,000 yards to tie the team record with Drew Bledsoe.

9.1

The number of receptions per game that WR Wes Welker is averaging in 2009. He currently has 109 receptions despite missing two games due to injury. If he keeps that pace he will finish the season with a team record of 127 catches. The 127 would rank second in NFL history to Marvin Harrison's record of 143.

10

The number of seasons that Randy Moss has reached 1,000-yards receiving. He joins Jerry Rice (14 seasons) as the only players in NFL history to record 10 seasons with 1,000 receiving yards.

11

The number of NFL receivers who have reached 900 career receptions. Moss became the 11th player to reach the milestone and now has 917 career receptions.

14

The number of times Tom Brady has earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, after earning the award for his 378-yard passing effort in the Patriots' come-from-behind 25-24 win on opening week vs. Buffalo and for a six-TD effort vs. Tennessee.

30

The number of regular season 300-yard passing games by Tom Brady, a new team record. Brady's seven 300-yard games in 2009 moved him past Drew Bledsoe (26) for the team record.

31

The number of NFL players who have reached 30,000-yards passing yards after Tom Brady reached the milestone at Miami. Brady now has 30,391 passing yards.

64

The number of 100-yard receiving games by WR Randy Moss, which ranks second in NFL history to WR Jerry Rice's 76 100-yard receiving games.

THE KRAFT ERA

The number of Super Bowl championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Only Denver (2; 1997 and 1998) and Pittsburgh (2; 2005 and 2008) have won multiple Super Bowl titles since 1994.

The number of conference championships the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Pittsburgh has won three conference titles since 1994.

17

The number of playoff games the Patriots have won since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994. That mark is the highest total in the NFL over that span. Pittsburgh ranks second with 15 playoff wins over that span.

24

The number of playoff games the Patriots have appeared in since 1994. The mark is the highest in the NFL, ahead of the 23 games played by Pittsburgh.

THE BELICHICK ERA

Bill Belichick is one of just 4 coaches to win three championships since the Super Bowl era began. Belichick joins three members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the exclusive club (Chuck Knoll 4, Joe Gibbs 3, and Bill Walsh 3). Belichick is the only coach to win three Super Bowls in the post-1993 salary cap era.

106-36

The Patriots' regular-season record since 2001 under Head Coach Bill Belichick. Under Belichick, the Patriots have won 74.6 percent of their regular-season games, recording the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 15 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 168 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 15-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENTS

With their ninth win of the season, the Patriots have won more than half of their games for the ninth straight year. They are the first team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since free agency began in 1993.

The Patriots are the fifth team to win more than half of their games in nine straight seasons since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, joining the 49ers (16 straight from 1983-1998), the Cowboys (16 straight from 1970-85), the Raiders (11 straight from 1970-80) and the Steelers (9 straight from 1972-80).

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 15th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last eight seasons and has produced six division championships in the last eight seasons, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (120-39). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 125-50 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BRADY NEARS 4,000 YARDS AND 25 TDS

Tom Brady currently has 3,945 passing yards through 14 games and needs 55 yards to reach at least 4,000 yards for the third time in his career. Brady is currently tied with Drew Bledsoe with two 4,000-yard seasons. Brady had 41,110 yards passing in 2005 and a team-record 4,806 yards in 2007. He can become the ninth NFL player to have three 4,000-yard seasons.

Brady currently has 24 touchdown passes and needs one more for his fifth season with 25 or more touchdowns. If reaches 25 he will tie Drew Brees for the fifth most seasons with 25 or more touchdowns.

MOSS IS NFL'S PREMIER TD RECEIVER

Since entering the NFL in 1998, Randy Moss has caught 145 touchdown passes, more than any other player over that span. Since joining the Patriots via trade prior to the 2007 season, Moss has caught 44 touchdowns – also the best in the league over that span. In terms of overall touchdowns (rushing, receiving and returning), Moss has totaled 146 scores since entering the league in 1998 (145 via reception and one via punt return), a tally that ranks second only to LaDainian Tomlinson (151 touchdowns) over that span. Last season, Moss's 11 touchdown receptions led the AFC and tied for third in the NFL.

Moss had 10 catches in the win vs. Atlanta (9/27), making it his 10th game with 10 or more catches. The 10-catch performance was Moss's second of 2009 – he tied a career high with 12 catches in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9/14). Moss now has three 10-catch games with New England.

MOSS TIES RICE FOR MOST 10-PLUS TD SEASONS

Randy Moss scored on a 13-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter at Buffalo to record his 10th touchdown of the season. Moss now has nine 10-plus touchdown seasons to tie Jerry Rice for the most NFL seasons with 10-plus receiving touchdowns.

MOSS AMONG ALL-TIME LEADERS

Randy Moss is among the NFL's all-time leaders in two major receiving categories – career touchdown receptions and receiving yards per game. In his 10-plus seasons, Moss has caught 145 touchdown passes and is one of just three receivers in NFL history to break the 140-touchdown mark. Additionally, Moss has averaged 78.0 receiving yards per game during his career, a mark that ranks second in NFL history.

Moss had a 55-yard reception and a 63-yd TD reception at Indianapolis. (11/5). It was the fourth time in his career that he has had two or more 50-yard receptions in the same game. His best game was when he had three 50-yd touchdowns (51, 56 and 56) (11-26-98 at Dallas).

WR Wes Welker News & Notes

WELKER LEADS NFL IN RECEPTIONS SINCE 2007

Wes Welker leads the NFL with 332 receptions since the start of 2007. In 2007, he set a Patriots franchise record with 112 receptions, tying him for the NFL lead and setting a league record for most receptions in a player's first season with a new team. In 2008, he nearly replicated that feat, with his 111 receptions placing second in the NFL. Welker joined the Patriots in a trade with the Miami Dolphins prior to the 2007 season and since then is the NFL's leading receiver. He is the first player to reach 300 receptions in his first 40 games with a new team.

WELKER ON PACE FOR 127 CATCHES IN 2009; HIS 9.1 CATCHES PER GAME WILL SET NFL RECORD

Welker leads the NFL with 109 receptions, despite missing two games due to injury. He is averaging 9.1 receptions in the 12 games he has played. If he keeps that pace, he will finish the season with a Patriots record of 127 catches, breaking the old mark of 112 he set in 2007. A total of 127 receptions would rank second in NFL history to Marvin Harrison's record of 143. The 9.1 catches per game will also be an NFL record, besting the 8.9 average set by Harrison in 2002.

Welker has had six or more receptions in 25 of his last 28 regular-season games. He has 17 games with nine or more catches since joining the Patriots. His 17 games with nine or more catches are the most in Patriots history, topping Ben Coates' mark of 10.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

WELKER GOES OVER 100 YARDS

Welker has a career-high five 100-yard games in 2009 and 13 for his career. His previous high for most 100-yd games in a season was four in 2007 and 2008.

PATRIOTS HAVE SUSTAINED SUCCESS

New England is near the top regular-season victory total for any team in any NFL decade. San Francisco won 113 regular-season games during the 1990s.The Indianapolis Colts (115) broke that mark earlier this season. The New England Patriots (112) are within striking distance of the all-time win mark for a decade held by the Colts.

PATRIOTS ELECT FIVE SEASON CAPTAINS

The New England Patriots announced their 2009 captains prior to the start of the regular-season. Quarterback Tom Brady and WR Randy Moss serve as offensive captains. Nose tackle Vince Wilfork and LB Jerod Mayo serve as defensive captains. Wide receiver Sam Aiken serves as special teams captain. The Patriots' 2009 captains were elected by their teammates.

On offense, Brady serves as an offensive captain for the eighth straight season, having first been elected in 2002. Moss, in his third season with the Patriots after joining the team via trade in April 2007, serves as a Patriots captain for the second straight season.

On defense, Wilfork is a captain for the second straight season, while Mayo serves as a captain for the first time. He joined the Patriots as a first-round pick in 2008 and earned the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year award.

Aiken serves as the Patriots' special teams captain for the first time. A special teams standout, Aiken has accumulated 71 special teams tackles during his six NFL seasons, entering the 2009 season.

PIERRE WOODS STAYS ON THE RIGHT PATH

On the field, linebacker Pierre Woods is respected for being one of the grittiest players on the Patriots. Woods emerged from an impoverished area of Cleveland and was steered away from a life of crime by the father of one his closest friends, Ted Ginn, Jr., now a Miami Dolphins wideout. Ted Ginn, Sr. explained to the Boston Herald that "it took a lot of conversations he didn't want to have to get him to understand. I had to be that protector for him. I had to be that flashlight so he could see that what I was telling him was true."

Woods credited Ginn, Sr. with having such a powerful impact on his life that when he won the Big Ten Championship at Michigan, he gave the ring to his father figure, Ginn, Sr. "As I grew as a young man, I learned to respect and love the man like a father," Woods said to the Boston Herald. As Woods celebrates his fourth season in Foxborough, he takes the opportunity to reflect, especially now as a father of three. "[My son] should never have to go through the things that I went through," he said. "But, I wouldn't want my kids to be blind to the fact that this is what happens in the inner cities in America."

LEADING IN BOTH SACKS AND INT.

Shawn Springs (2004 with Washington) Adalius Thomas (2005 with Baltimore) and Junior Seau (1997 with San Diego) are three of just six players in NFL history to lead their team in both sacks and interceptions in a season.

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

A JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT: SEAU WINNING STREAK

LB Junior Seau ended a streak of 24 consecutive regular-season victories in games in which he appeared with the loss at Miami (12/6). Seau's 24 wins are tied with DT Maulty Moore of the Miami Dolphins (1972-73) for the longest personal winning streak since the merger. Seau's record stretched from two wins in November of 2006 (he finished the 2006 season on IR), 16 regular-season wins in 2007, the final four games of 2008 and the wins over Tennessee and Tampa Bay in 2009. Seau was active but did not play vs. Miami (11/8), at Indianapolis (11/15) and vs. Jets (11/22) and was inactive at New Orleans (11/30).

FRED TAYLOR AMONG NFL'S BEST

Fred Taylor ranks 15th in NFL history for most rushing yards with career totals of 2,473 carries for 11,472 yards and 64 rushing touchdowns in 144 games. He trails only San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson (12,430) among active running backs in rushing yards. Taylor ranks among the NFL's all-time best in several categories.

WILFORK WEARS HEART ON SLEEVE AND NECK

Defensive tackle Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his bulky shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents Vince and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. His perseverance in the face of despair led him to the NFL, while off the field he became closer with his now strongest supporter, his wife Bianca, who helped him through his losses. While he has many accomplishments on the football field and will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom.

"I carry them with me wherever I go," Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "They're with me. The only regret that I have in life is that my parents are not with me today to see where I am today. But I wouldn't be anywhere today without my wife."

MATT LIGHT AND HIS FOUNDATION

The Light Foundation, a nonprofit founded in 2001 by Matt Light, held its signature fundraising event on, September 29 at Addieville East Farm in Mapleville, RI.

The Matt Light Celebrity Shoot-Out, now in its fifth year, offers participants the opportunity to match their shooting skills against Light, his teammates, and a host of local and national celebrities. Proceeds from the one-of-a-kind event benefit the Light Foundation, a youth-based organization that strives to install honesty, accountability and responsibility in young people through unique outdoor learning experiences that include a character development football camp, a financial literacy program offered at area schools and academic scholarships. In the eight years since the organization was founded, it has raised over $1.2 million to support these programs.

Light wanted a unique, high-profile charity event that would raise funds and exposure for his foundation, and his love of the outdoors naturally came into play.

PATRIOTS WIN GAME NUMBER 400

The Patriots recorded the franchise's 400th all-time victory, including postseason games, with the 26-10 win over Atlanta (9/27). The 400 victories rank third among the eight original AFL teams, behind Denver and Oakland. The eight original AFL teams, including the Patriots, began play in 1960. The Patriots recorded their milestone 400th victory in their 50th season and in their 777th overall game. Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have 182 victories, more than any other NFL team during that span.

BRADY GOES DEEP

Brady completed two 58-yard passes and an 81-yard pass at Miami (12/6). It is the first time in his career that he has completed three passes of 50 or more yards in the same game. He has five games with two 50-yard completions, including one in 2009. He completed a 63-yard touchdown and a 55-yard pass to WR Randy Moss at Indianapolis (11/15/09).

BRADY WAS THERE FOR "THE CATCH"

In the 2003 AFC Divisional Playoff Game against Tennessee on January 10, 2004, QB Tom Brady threw for 201 yards and one touchdown, leading the Patriots to a narrow 17-14 victory en route to their second Super Bowl. That wasn't the first time Brady had seen a major playoff game come down to the wire on a game played on January 10. A native of the Bay area, Brady was at Candlestick Park for the 1981 NFC Championship game between the 49ers and Cowboys, as a 4-year-old fan, witnessing Dwight Clark's "The Catch" from Joe Montana. According to Gary Myers' book The Catch, Brady wept after the play. Said Brady, "Not because I was happy or excited, but because everybody stood up and I couldn't see!" While Brady has been recognized for his stellar credentials, he said Montana, "was and will always be the greatest quarterback ever to play."

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON

WR Matthew Slater spent his college days in Los Angeles at UCLA. The second-year promising young talent was born in 1985, when another Slater in The City of Angels was named to his second of seven Pro Bowls. Matthew's father, Jackie Slater, a Hall of Fame offensive tackle, spent his entire career with the Rams organization in LA. He was voted the NFC Offensive Lineman of the year four times—1983, 1986, 1987, and 1989. Matthew Slater, drafted in 2008, is one of six sons of Hall of Fame members to be drafted in NFL history.

HALL OF FAME FATHERS WITH SONS DRAFTED IN THE NFL

Jackie Slater (class of 2001) – son, Matthew Slater (NE)
Howie Long (class of 2000) – son, Chris Long (STL)
Bobby Bell (class of 1983) – son, Bobby Bell (NYJ)
Tony Dorsett (class of 1994) – son, Anthony Dorsett (HOU)
Bob Griese (class of 1990) – son, Brian Griese (DEN)
Kellen Winslow (class of 1995) – son, Kellen Winslow (CLE)

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON, PART 2

CB Shawn Springs has always been a speedster. No doubt, the gift of fast feet was a hereditary gift from his father, Ron Springs, an 8-year NFL running back for the Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Ron, who tallied over 2,500 rushing and 2,200 receiving yards in his career, became ill in 1990 with Type 2 Diabetes. By 2004, Shawn was a respected NFL veteran, but he was willing to give up his career and offered to donate his kidney to his father, who needed a transplant. Ron declined, saying in a 2005 Washington Post article, "I think that was a tremendous gesture, and it just justifies the fact that he's a loving son. But I couldn't have let him do that, because I always prayed and wanted him to be a professional athlete, so I would not have shortened his career by no means necessary."

GUYTON HAS THE WORK ETHIC

Gary Guyton was not drafted into the NFL, but through a solid work ethic was able to make the 53-man roster and earn a starting job in his second year. Taking a peek into his work history shows his work ethic goes beyond the football field. At the end of the season last year, Guyton went back to Georgia Tech and worked as an office assistant at the school's research institute.

"I was an office assistant, right there at the desk," said Guyton, who worked for a small wage at Georgia Tech Research Institute. "Just a regular office assistant. Tech is my school and I enjoyed it."

"He's smart, well prepared," Bill Belichick said. "He understands. He's got a real good understanding of football. Not just his role but where other people have to be. That's what you really want in a defensive signal-caller, someone that understands how it all works."

It's been a long road," Guyton said. "I have come far. I've achieved some things. But I don't look back, just forward."

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

MAYO IS A YOUNG LEADER

Jerod Mayo learned knowledge and discipline are the keys to success while spending afternoons with his three brothers under the supervision of their grandfather, Walter Johnson, a retired Air Force veteran of 30 years. While Mayo's mother worked two jobs, Johnson taught the boys discipline, responsibility and the value of life. Those lessons helped Mayo develop a work ethic and demeanor that has earned him the nickname of "Old Soul" from his teammates. His leadership skills and talent helped him become only the second Patriot to be named Rookie of the Year, earning that title in 2008 to join Michael Haynes (1976).

FREE AGENTS MAKE AN IMPACT

Sixteen players on the New England 53-man roster entered the NFL as rookie free agents. Two that came to the Patriots as rookie free agents are making an impact on the defense. Mike Wright came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2005. He registered his first career two-sack game, dropping Joe Flacco twice for total losses of 17 yards vs. Baltimore (10-4). He currently has a single-season career high with 5.0 sacks. Gary Guyton came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2007. He is second on the team with 83 total tackles and is on pace to finish the season with 95 tackles. Said Bill Belichick about players coming to the Patriots as a free agents, "I think Mike's similar to some of the other players that would fall into that category. Players like Gary Guyton and guys like that who weren't high picks that came in at a pretty early point — Pierre Woods, [Brian] Hoyer — came in and showed that they belonged, both physically and athletically from a football standpoint, recognizing things, reacting, kind of knowing what to do."

TOUGH AT HOME

The Patriots own an overall record of 58-12 (.829) at Gillette Stadium. Since their state-of-the-art facility opened at the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home. Now in their seventh season at Gillette Stadium, the Patriots have finished three seasons undefeated at home since the stadium opened (2003, 2004 and 2007) and own a perfect 7-0 playoff record at the venue.

STEPHEN NEAL TAKES A DIFFERENT ROUTE

Guard Stephen Neal knows how to use his 6-4, 305-pound frame. He has used it to gain leverage and overpower defensive linemen since 2001. The three-time Super Bowl Champion arrived in Foxborough with two NCAA titles of his own, except the only padding he saw was on the matted floors.

A championship wrestler at Cal-State Bakersfield, he compiled a 151-10 record, winning titles his junior and senior year, including a title win over NCAA wrestling and UFC heavyweight champion Brock Lesnar. In 1999, Neal won the Dan Hodge Award, known as the Heisman Trophy of wrestling.

Neal is one of only two active NFL players that did not play football in college before turning pro. The other is San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates, a basketball star at Kent State. Gates led the Golden Flashes to the Elite Eight in 2002, averaging 21 points in his senior season.

MERIWEATHER MAKES BIG PLAYS ON BIG STAGE

S Brandon Meriweather prides himself on preparing for every game and every situation – in any location. At Wembley Stadium in London against Tampa Bay, Meriweather showed that not even a different time zone could throw off his timing, picking off the Buccaneers twice in the first six minutes of the game and returning one for a 39-yard touchdown. His two picks were enough to earn him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

To Head Coach Bill Belichick though, Meriweather has been contributing weekly, whether or not the statistics reflect his performance. Said Belichick, "From the beginning of training camp he's really been a leader for us back in the secondary, making calls, making adjustments, sometimes taking harder responsibilities with the safeties. He makes plays that don't show up on the stat sheet."

As for Meriweather, living up to an expectation of a repeat performance is a challenge he welcomes. "My level of expectation is already through the roof," Meriweather said. "I expect myself to be great every day. Not good here, good there, great here, great there - I expect to be great every day."

PATRIOTS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

50TH ANNIVERSARY

The Patriots are celebrating their 50th anniversary season in 2009 through a series of acknowledgements and dedications. The 50th season logo will appear throughout the 2009 season in Gillette Stadium, on Patriots.com, on items in the ProShop and in Patriots publications. For the Patriots and their fans, this season is one to celebrate a franchise that has grown from humble beginnings to become the winningest franchise in the NFL over the last 15 seasons.

ALL-TIME LISTS

Over the course of the year, the Patriots are unveiling a series of 20 "Top 10 All-Time" lists for fans to discuss and debate on Patriots All-Access and Patriots.com. Fans have the opportunity to vote for Top 10s in each of the 20 categories at Patriots.com. Fans can also rank the Top 50 Moments in Franchise History, and the Top 10 Moments, as chosen by the fans, will be unveiled over the course of the season.

ALL-TIME TEAM

In recognition of the 50th anniversary, the Patriots' Hall of Fame nominating committee has selected an All-Time Team recognizing the greatest players at each position to play for the Patriots over 50 years. The Patriots' All-Time Team was recognized in the Patriots' home-opener against Buffalo on Sept. 14.

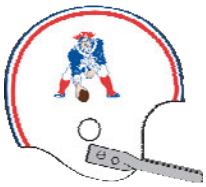
AFL LEGACY GAMES

This season marks the 50th anniversary for the American Football League (AFL), of which the Patriots were an original member. The Boston Patriots, who hosted the AFL's first regular season game on Sept. 9, 1960 at Boston University Field, were featured in the NFL's first "AFL Legacy Game" on the opening weekend of the 2009 season on Sept. 14, 2009, when the Patriots hosted the Buffalo Bills at Gillette Stadium on Monday Night Football. It was the first of four "AFL Legacy Games" in which the Patriots will appear this season (at Den, vs. Ten and at Mia). The Patriots will wear red and white "throwback" uniforms in those games, replicating the uniforms worn by the 1963 team that claimed the franchise's first division title and competed in the franchise's first league championship game. Patriots coaches will also wear apparel featuring the Pat Patriot logo.



GAMEDAY PROGRAM DESIGN

The original "Pat Patriot" was born in 1960 when newspaper cartoonist Phil Bissell was assigned to sketch a reaction upon the announcement that Boston's American Football League team would be called the Patriots. From his original "Pat" cartoon, Bissell became forever linked with the franchise that wore a copy based off of his original figure on its helmets from 1961 to 1992. Bissell, a resident of Rockport, Mass., also contributed stylized "Pat Patriot" cartoons to the covers of over 50 Patriots game programs throughout the team's AFL seasons from 1960-69. In recognition of the Patriots 50th anniversary, Bissell has been commissioned to create the covers of this season's Patriots GameDay magazines in the same style of those early covers.

50TH ANNIVERSARY AFL EXHIBIT

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is a monument to 50 years of Patriots history. In recognition of both the Patriots' 50th anniversary and the 50th anniversary of the AFL, The Hall is featuring a special exhibit throughout the 2009 season of game-worn jerseys, helmets and other memorabilia from the AFL era. "The AFL Turns 50" is the most extensive collection of AFL memorabilia viewable anywhere. For more information visit the thehallatpatriotplace.com or call 508-698-4800.

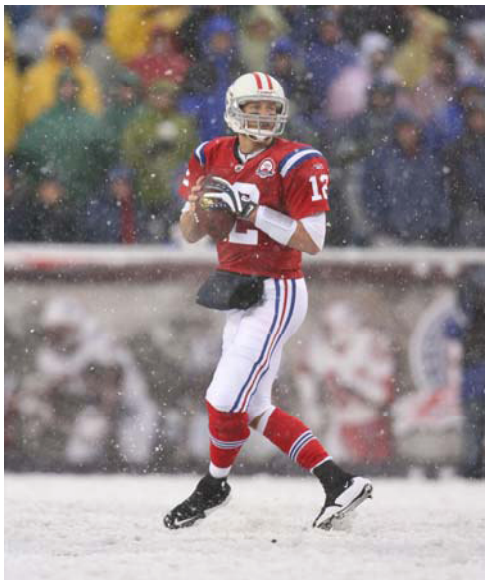
ONE HISTORIC GAME: 10/18/2009

The New England Patriots set team records for points in a game (59) and total net yards (619) in a 59-0 victory against the Tennessee Titans in snowy conditions at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots 59-point victory ties the largest margin of victory by any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, equaling the L.A. Rams' 59-point win over Atlanta on Dec. 4, 1976 (59-0).

Patriots 59
Titans 0

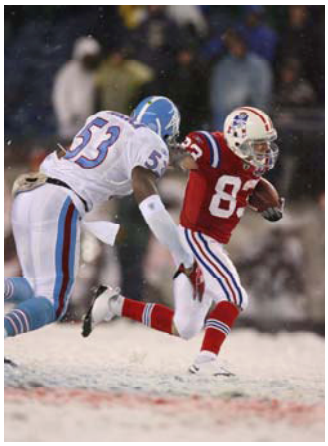
QB Tom Brady completed 29-of-34 pass attempts for 380 yards with six touchdown passes, wide receivers Wes Welker (10-150-2 TDs) and Randy Moss (8-129-3 TDs) both went over 100 yards receiving, and RB Laurence Maroney added 123 yards rushing on the ground.

Brady had 345 yards passing in the first half alone, and set an NFL record with five touchdown passes in the second quarter. For his contributions, Brady earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the second time on the young 2009 season. New England built a 45-0 halftime lead, the largest halftime lead in NFL history.



What They Said:

QB Tom Brady
(On the Patriots' historic output)
"You know, some days out there when it's snowy like that, it's actually an advantage for the offense. Today was one of those days because we had good footing and it's just fun to be a part of it. I was saying, when you see the weather forecast on Thursday, you're kind of [angry] and then once the day of the game comes around, everyone is excited because you're out there and you're like, 'This is football. This is how it should be.'"



WR Wes Welker
(On why the Patriots seem to play so well in the snow)
"I know Coach [Belichick] does a really good job of coaching us up: what's good, what's bad, making sure we have good footing, the right cleats, things like that. And understanding that we need to be in the right type of plays and being able to come off breaks and things like that are going to be a little bit different under the conditions. We need to make sure that in the kicking game we're taking care of our responsibilities and things like that."

Head Coach Bill Belichick
(On the Patriots' level of execution)
"[It's] good players. The players were the ones out there playing today and they did a good job. They kept their feet. They handled the ball well. They handled it cleanly. We missed some tackles on defense, but we made some. We made some plays defensively, turning the ball over. Some of those were tough catches, good plays, but we got them. The credit goes to the players; they did a great job."

NFL RECORDS SET AGAINST TITANS

- Most touchdown passes in a quarter, 5 (Tom Brady in the second quarter)
- Largest halftime lead, 45 points (45-0)

TEAM RECORDS SET AGAINST TITANS

- Most points in a game (59)
- Most points in a half (45 in first half)
- Most total net yards in a game (619)
- Most passing net yards in a game (426, tie)
- Most touchdowns in a game (8, tie)
- Most passing yards in a half (Tom Brady, 345)
- Most passing touchdowns in a half (Tom Brady, 5 in first half)
- Most passing touchdowns in a game (Tom Brady, 6, tie)

45-0 HALFTIME LEAD IS LARGEST EVER

New England's 45-0 halftime lead against the Titans was the largest halftime lead in NFL history. The previous largest halftime lead was 42 points, when Green Bay held a 42-7 halftime lead at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007.

PATRIOTS SET TEAM RECORD WITH 619 YARDS

The Patriots set a franchise record with 619 total net yards against Tennessee (10/18). The 619-yard performance was the fifth highest single-game total by an NFL team since the 1970 merger and was the ninth 600-yard game by an NFL team since 1970. The Patriots are the 6th team since 1990 to register 600 or more yards of total offense.

presented by RAYTHEON

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is the crown jewel of Patriot Place and the only sports and education experience of its kind. Through a dazzling array of interactive multimedia exhibits and artifacts never before viewable by the public, The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon showcases the tradition of the New England Patriots, explores the history of football in New England, and promotes math and science education for thousands of schoolchildren each year through its partnership with Raytheon.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall. The journey continues through 36,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' three Lombardi trophies.

The Hall features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Fans of all ages test their vertical leap, reaction time and weight against NFL players.

The Hall's 19 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Four and a half hours of exclusive video content is also displayed on 11 60-inch high-definition TV monitors, seven projection screens and the 48-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 15-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each of the members of the Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, six-foot wide video pylons utilizing the first Magink digital ink display in the United States. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (Doug Flutie's 1984 Heisman Trophy).

In partnership with Raytheon Company, The Hall at Patriot Place presents an integrated math and science education program with lesson plans designed to combine elements of The Hall's exhibits in an engaging educational platform for visiting school groups. Additionally, all visitors can experience the "In the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2009, The Hall received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee Magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.thehallatpatriotplace.com

TERRIFIC TUESDAYS

Each week, The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon presents a "Terrific Tuesday" game-related incentive, whereby if the Patriots achieve a certain goal in that week's game, ALL tickets to The Hall will be $5 on the following Tuesday. This week's incentive: If the Patriots defense prevents Maurice Jones-Drew from scoring a touchdown, all tickets to The Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 29 will be $5.
