

PATRIOTS VS. BILLS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Bills will meet for the 101st time, with New England holding a 59-40-1 edge following a series sweep in 2009 for the sixth straight season. The Patriots, who have won 13 straight games against Buffalo, have not lost a game to the Bills since a 31-0 loss on opening day of the 2003 season (9/7/03). The 13-game win streak is the fourth longest winning streak over a single opponent in NFL history.

The series between the AFC East rivals began in 1960. The Patriots' 59 wins over the Bills are their highest victory total over any opponent, nine more than they own over the New York Jets (50). New England has won 13 straight games in the series and has won 18 of its last 20 games against Buffalo dating back to the 2000 season.

The Patriots have won by an average margin of 18 points per game during their current 13-game win streak. The Patriots are 28-21 all-time in Buffalo, including 21-15 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Patriots beat the Bills last season with a come-from-behind 25-24 win on opening day at Gillette Stadium (9/14/09), and then won the re-match at Ralph Wilson Stadium (12/20/09), 17-10.

The teams have had many memorable matchups over the years, including a five-game span from 1999 to 2001 where four of the five contests were decided in overtime.

NEW YORK JETS 28, PATRIOTS 14

September 19, 2010 ★ The New Meadowlands Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	14	0	0	— 14
New York Jets	0	10	11	7	— 28

Quarterback Mark Sanchez threw three touchdowns to lead the New York Jets to a 28-14 victory over the New England Patriots at The New Meadowlands Stadium. New England jumped in front 14-10 in the first half, but the Jets scored 18 points in the second half, forced three turnovers and held the Patriots to just 80 total yards and no points.

The Patriots dominated the start of the game with a 7:34 drive and an 8:10 drive but came away with just one touchdown on those two drives. New England opened the game with a 13-play drive that ended at the Jets 19-yard line with a missed field goal. After stopping the Jets on three straight plays on the next series, the Patriots went on a 15-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a 6-yard touchdown pass from QB Tom Brady to WR Wes Welker for a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter.

The Jets converted two third-down plays on the ensuing drive to get into position for Sanchez's first touchdown pass of the day, a 10-yard pass to WR Braylon Edwards, to tie the game at 7-7. New England took a 14-7 lead later in the second quarter following a 46-yard pass from Brady to rookie TE Aaron Hernandez on a third-and-ten play for a first down at the Jets 34-yard line. Hernandez finished the game with six receptions for 101 yards. On the next play, Brady went deep for WR Randy Moss for a 34-yard touchdown pass. The touchdown marked the 150th touchdown of Moss' career, as he became just the fourth NFL player to reach at least 150 touchdowns. Jets CB Darrelle Revis aggravated his hamstring on the play to Moss and did not return to the game.

The Jets got the ball back with 53 seconds left in the first half and Sanchez completed 3-of-4 passes for 41 yards to move to the 31-yard line where K Nick Folk connected on a 49-yard field goal to cut the New England lead to 14-10 at the break.

Brady threw two interceptions and lost a fumble on a sack in the second half. The first turnover came when Jets CB Antonio Cromartie intercepted a Brady pass at the New York three-yard line on a pass intended for Moss in the end zone. The Jets took over and engineered 10-play, 80-yard drive that ended in a field goal to cut the lead to, 14-13. A 31-yard run by RB LaDainian Tomlinson on the Jets next series helped set up a 2-yard touchdown pass from Sanchez to WR Jerricho Cotchery and a Sanchez 2-point play to Edwards put the Jets in front, 21-14.

Early in the fourth quarter Brady was intercepted by Jets S Rodney Pool on a deep pass to Moss. After two pass interference penalties against the Patriots aided a drive that ended in a 1-yard touchdown pass from Sanchez to TE Dustin Keller for a 28-14 lead, Brady moved the Patriots to the New York 16-yard line. A strip sack by LB Jason Taylor ended the scoring threat. New York ran out the final four minutes to win the game.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 16 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won nine division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 173 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 16 seasons of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team. The Patriots have now won 9 or more games in 13 of the 16 seasons that Robert Kraft has owned the team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 16th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 90-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times and has produced seven division championships, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), and established the record for consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-5) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (122-42). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 127-53 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

PATRIOTS NEWS & NOTES

WILFORK WEARS HIS HEART ON HIS NECK

Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his bulky shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents David and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. Wilfork, who lost his father to diabetes, has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for diabetes-related causes. His annual draft day fundraiser, a bowling event he has held for seven years, is one of the signature fundraising events held by a pro athlete in New England. For his charity work, Wilfork was awarded the 2010 New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award. While he has many accomplishment on the football field and will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom. "I carry them with me wherever I go", Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "My parents pushed me to be the best I could be. The things I do and my wife does, we do out of the kindness of our heart, and we do it for the community. I never look for anything in return. My teammates are my second family. My kids, my wife, the New England Patriots – that's all I have."

ZOLTAN MESKO: COMING TO AMERICA

Rookie P Zoltan Mesko was born in Timisoara, Romania, on the Romania-Hungary border. In 1989, during the communist revolutions, his family would survive by diving on the floor to avoid gun shots from the armies. Even after the fall of the Berlin Wall, his parents and he lived in poverty. His family was finally able to escape Romania when his father won a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card) in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery in 1997 when Mesko was 11.

MESKO DISCOVERS FOOTBALL

An avid soccer player from his days in Romania, Mesko had a strong leg. It was only when he came to America that he discovered his leg could take him places. In eighth grade, Mesko was playing kickball in the gym when he kicked the ball so high that he broke a light fixture. He was given a choice: pay for the light fixture or play football. With his family still struggling with money and football being a more popular sport than soccer at his school, the choice was an obvious one—Mesko decided to play football. His leg would land him numerous Division I Scholarships and admission offers from Ivy League schools. From these, Mesko chose to play football at Michigan.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: CB DEVIN MCCOURTY

After being selected by the Patriots in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, CB Devin McCourty became part of a select group in league history. McCourty's identical twin brother, Jason, is a cornerback with Tennessee, selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. The two are the 11th set of twins to play in the NFL. Devin and Jason were cornerbacks in the Rutgers secondary from 2005-08. Devin redshirted for the 2005 season and therefore was a year behind his brother in eligibility. McCourty is the second twin to suit up for the Patriots, after CB Kato Serwanga was a member of the team from 1998-2000. His twin brother Wasswa played for San Francisco and Minnesota from 1999-2001. According to McCourty's mother, the two can only be told apart by tiny scars on their faces left by chickenpox.

EDELMAN GOES FROM STANDOUT QB TO WR

Julian Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (Ca.) before transferring to Kent State where as a senior he completed 56% of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense to break Joshua Cribb's single season school record that was set in 2003 when he was at Kent State.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: TE ROB GRONKOWSKI

Rookie TE Rob Gronkowski grew up playing football against his brothers in the backyard. Now, he has a chance to play against them in the NFL. Dan Gronkowski, the oldest of the bunch, is currently in his second season as a TE for the Denver Broncos, while 23-year old Chris is currently a rookie with the Dallas Cowboys as a fullback. The Gronkowski's are among 22 different sets of brothers currently in the NFL, yet they are the only family that can claim to have three siblings in the league. According to the pro Football Hall of Fame, the Gronkowski brothers join nine other families to have at least three brothers playing at the same time.

Family	Brothers	Yr. in NFL at Same Time
Gronkowski	Rob, Dan, Chris	2010

READ BETWEEN THE LINES

The Patriots teamed up with Ahern Middle School in Foxborough on June 9 to introduce "Read Between the Lines," a new program featuring Patriots offensive and defensive linemen to promote the school's "Summer Reading Blitz." Every student in attendance received a "Read Between the Lines" playbook and was encouraged to set their personal reading goals of at least two books this past summer. If the 923 students collectively read more than 2010 books over the summer, a Patriots offensive and defensive lineman will return in the fall for another assembly to reward the students. Any student who reads at least two books over the summer will also be entered into a drawing for an opportunity to have lunch following the assembly with one of the Patriots linemen.

MATT LIGHT AND THE LIGHT FOUNDATION

Patriots T Matt Light and the Light Foundation took aim at another successful year for the organization when they hosted the 2010 Matt Light Celebrity Shoot-Out on Tuesday, September 14 at Addieville East Farm in Mapleville, Rhode Island. The event allows for participants to test their clay shooting skills against a host of celebrities, including members of the New England Patriots as well as stars from TV and movies. Current Patriots QB Tom Brady, WR's Randy Moss and Wes Welker and Light's fellow linemen, C Dan Koppen and T Nick Kaczur have also tried their hand at the competition in years past. The Light Foundation was established in 2001 and strives to instill the values of responsibility and hard work to youths by providing unique outdoor learning experiences to assist them in reaching their highest potential.

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON

WR Matthew Slater spent his college days at UCLA. The third-year promising young talent was born in 1985, when another Slater in The City of Angels was named to his second of seven Pro Bowls. Matthew's father, Jackie Slater, a Hall of Fame offensive tackle, spent his entire career with the Rams organization in LA. Matthew Slater, drafted in 2008, is one of six sons of Hall of Fame members to be drafted in NFL history.

THE TEAM OF THE DECADE

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 16 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s.
