PIP Fund exceeds $250K in donations

The Partners in Patriotism (PIP) Fund reached a significant milestone at its April 24th meeting when the Grants Committee unanimously awarded a matching grant of up to $10,000 to Foxborough Veterans Services to assist in the fundraising efforts to construct a new war memorial on the Common to commemorate Foxborough residents who have served in the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts.

With the commitment of funds to this project, the PIP Fund surpassed $250,000 in total donations to Foxborough

HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE

2017 marks the 15th anniversary of Gillette Stadium opening in Foxborough

In the spring of 1970, the Town of Foxborough voted to become the official home of the Patriots and construct Schaefer Stadium for $7.1 million at the site of the Foxborough Bay State Raceway on Route 1. In 1989, Robert Kraft, a Patriots season ticket holder at the time, purchased the stadium out of bankruptcy and the Kraft Group's partnership with the Town began. Five years later, Kraft and his family purchased the Patriots with a promise of keeping the team in New England and bringing a Super Bowl championship to the region - a promise he has made good on five times over.

The franchise and region have enjoyed many successes since the Kraft Group and the Town entered into a public-private partnership 28 years ago. The worst-to-first transformation of the Patriots may be one of the greatest in sports history. Arguably the most significant contribution to the region, however, has been the transformation of Route 1.

From unpaved parking lots, a racetrack, a mobile home park and a decrepit stadium to a world-class sports and entertainment complex that has contributed more than $65 million in direct revenue to the Town to date, we are proud of this transformation and the benefits that have come to the region through the creation of economic activity and jobs. Paramount to this success has been our relationship with the Town. We are thankful for the community's many years of support in the construction, opening and operation of Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place. This year marks 15 years since Gillette Stadium opened in Foxborough.

The first event ever held at the privately-financed, $325 million venue was a New England Revolution match on May 11, 2002. The first concert was The Rolling Stones on Sept. 5, 2002 and four days later, we celebrated the venue's grand opening on "Monday Night Football" as the Patriots unveiled their Super Bowl XXXVI championship banner prior.

Since 2002, the stadium has been one of the world's busiest venues and a significant economic driver for the Town, with amenities that attract year-round business beyond Patriots and Revolution games. In 15 years of operation, Gillette Stadium alone has generated more than $41.5 million in revenue to the Town. In 2008, Patriot Place opened, and has delivered an additional $23.4 million in revenue to the Town to date.

This partnership has accomplished so much in the first 15 years of Gillette Stadium and we look forward to working together to see what can be achieved over the next 15 years.

IN THE SCHOOLS

A REMARKABLE AND INSPIRING STUDENT

May 30 was a special night for the Foxborough High School Class of 2017, as many seniors received scholarships toward their respective college educations.

Angela VandenBoom

The evening was particularly meaningful to FHS senior Angela VandenBoom, as she received word that she was the recipient of the 2017 New England Patriots Charitable Foundation scholarship.

"I found Angie to be such a remarkable candidate for this scholarship and her dedication to helping others so inspiring," said Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft.

Typically, the Patriots scholarship annually awards one FHS senior $2,000, but Mr. Kraft was so impressed with VandenBoom's volunteerism and desire to give back that he thought she deserved more, which is why he and his family awarded her with a scholarship to cover tuition and fees for one full year at UMass Boston.

"I had goosebumps," said VandenBoom, recalling the moment she learned she was the recipient of the Patriots scholarship. "I felt so honored and humbled to be called 'inspiring' and 'remarkable' by Mr. Kraft."

VandenBoom also received the Chancellor's Scholarship from UMass Boston, which covers all tuition and fees for four years at the university, so the Kraft family decided to award VandenBoom with a scholarship of $13,435, the equivalent of one year of tuition and fees at UMass Boston. These funds, which will be available to VandenBoom through the university, will cover additional costs associated with attending the university, such as textbooks, course fees, her campus meal plan, etc.

"I would like to thank Mr. Kraft and the Kraft Group for such an amazing gift and for his kind words and personal support," said VandenBoom. "This kindness and generosity is truly inspiring and remarkable. I cannot thank Mr. Kraft enough."

VandenBoom plans to pursue a career in nursing so she can help others and make a difference in the world around her.

BY THE NUMBERS

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: Since opening in 2002, Gillette Stadium has contributed more than $41.5 million in revenue to the Town of Foxborough. The opening of Patriot Place in 2008 has brought the Town an additional $23.4 million in revenue during the nine years of that operation. Below is a by the numbers look at how Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place have financially contributed to the Town over its first 15 years of operation:

$41.5M

The amount of revenue the Town has received from Gillette Stadium since 2002.

$23.4M

The amount of revenue the Town has received from taxes and fees collected from Patriot Place since 2008.

$65M

The amount of revenue the Town has received from Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place since 2002.

$31.8M

The amount of revenue from Ticket User Charges the Town has received from Gillette Stadium events since 2002.

$1.1M

The amount of revenue the Town has received from meals tax receipts from Gillette Stadium since 2011.

NOTE: The Town adopted a meals tax at the 2011 Annual Town Meeting.

PATRIOTS DONATE $2,500 TO FOXBOROUGH'S UNIFIED ATHLETICS

The Patriots Alumni Club and the Patriots Charitable Foundation hosted a Football for You youth clinic inside the Empower Field House on June 15. The free one-day, non-contact football camp brought about 150 boys and girls from the Foxborough area together to learn the basics of football from a lineup of Patriots legends.

To kick off the clinic, Patriots Alumni Club President Pete Brock presented Foxborough Public Schools with a donation of $2,500 to help the high school expand its Unified Athletics program.

"I'm proud to announce the Patriots Alumni Club has done such a great job fundraising that we now have an opportunity to give back to a site community who has supported Football for You over the years," said Brock. "Foxborough is one of those communities and we wanted to share our success with our friends at the Foxborough Public Schools to help their Unified Athletics program."

Accepting the donation on behalf of the Foxborough High School Athletic Department was Blake Riley.

During the clinic, the 150 kids spent time at six different football stations, each led by a former Patriots player.

Joining Brock to coach the clinic were Patriots alums Patrick Pass, Steve Nelson, Steve Grogan, Jim Bowman, Ed Ellis and Ronnie Lippett.

THE KRAFT GROUP: A CLOSER LOOK

KRAFT GROUP'S JOINT VENTURE WITH SCHWARZ PARTNERS LP LEVERAGES EXPERIENCE IN PAPER AND PACKAGING

We conclude our overview of the Kraft Group's paper and packaging division with a closer look at New-Indy Container Corporation.

Formed in 2012, New-Indy is a joint venture between two family-owned companies with long histories in paper and packaging. The JV leverages the Kraft Group's experience in mill operations and linerboard sales with Schwarz Partners LP's experience as the largest open market linerboard purchaser and the country's leading sheet feed operator. New-Indy sets itself apart from others by offering its customers a collection of standard and innovative products to meet their business requirements for packaging and its transportation.

MOMS, SONS CAN'T DODGE THE FUN

The Kraft family hosted Foxboro Recreation's annual Mother-Son Dodgeball tournament at Gillette Stadium on June 2. Nearly 500 participants did their best to dodge, duck, dip and dive the incoming fire of dodgeballs. The "Savage Chee Choos" outlasted the competition to win the 2017 tournament.

FACES OF FOXBOROUGH

RICK RECCHIO

Originally from New York, Rick Recchio joined the Kraft Group by happenstance seven years ago.

"A friend of mine was working at the Kraft Group and recommended me for some part-time work," Rick said. "That eventually led to full-time work and seven years later, here I am and I'm enjoying every minute of it."

Rick moved to Foxborough when he was hired by the Kraft Group and said he enjoys the close-knit community.

"It's a beautiful town," said Rick. "I run and bike a lot around town. People are very friendly in this community. I enjoy living and working in Foxborough a lot."

Rick is currently the manager of catering setup. He is responsible for setting up functions and special events held at the stadium year-round.

"Whether that's for football or a variety of special events, I coordinate with all of the relevant departments and the kitchen to ensure we are ready to go."

In addition to the Patriots-related events, Rick says he enjoys the conventions that are held at Gillette Stadium.

"The conventions we get at the stadium are a lot of fun to set-up for, as we get to see all of the different vendors and their toys," Rick said.

As for working at the Kraft Group, Rick said he enjoys the people and diversity of the events business.

"We have a great group of people here," said Rick. "A lot of smart and very interesting people, which makes the job so rewarding. It's never a dull moment around here and it's never the same either. Every day is different and a new adventure. You want to work at a place like that."

FOXBOROUGH STREET PAINTING FESTIVAL

Foxborough's Kira Hallberg took home first place in the 2017 People's Choice Award for her artwork at Patriot Place's third annual Street Painting Festival.

A CELEBRATION OF ARTS, COMMUNITY AT PATRIOT PLACE

The third annual Foxborough Street Painting Festival at Patriot Place on May 20 attracted more than 96 artists from 17 communities and raised $500 for an art scholarship to be awarded to a Foxborough High School senior who will be attending a four-year art college next fall.

Artists of all ages showcased their creative works by painting 48 cement squares scattered throughout Patriot Place's North Marketplace. The Patriot Place festival, in partnership with the Foxborough Public Schools Art Department and Foxboro Dental Associates, celebrated the arts and community through a day of family fun and free activities.

Congratulations to the following Foxborough artists who received awards for their artwork:

Lacey DeSantis (first place, Grades K-4); Eamonn Kelly (second place, Grades K-4); Saveena (third place, Grades K-4); Ciara Davis (first place, Grades 5-8); Ana Noriega, John Randall and Tasneem Bootwala (third place, Grades 9-12); Kira Hallberg (first place, People's Choice; Second place, Adult); Kasi Mammone and Adeline Storrs (third place, Adult); Emma O'Sullivan (first place, Family); David and Mia Michelson (second place, Family); Jackie Habig (third place, Family; Third place, Best Representation of Theme); Liza Shayevich (second place, Best Representation of Theme); Jackie Habig (third place; Best Representation of Theme); Visruth Chavalam (third place, People's Choice).

"Every year we are blown away by the quality of artwork and this year's 48 painted squares were no exception. None of this would be possible without our sponsors and volunteers each year."

A CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND

Foxborough lacrosse programs take in NCAA Championships at Gillette Stadium

A Memorial Day Weekend of lacrosse at Gillette Stadium for the 2017 NCAA Championships was celebrated by the 98,864 fans from around the country who attended the eight games from May 26-29. As part of the celebration, the Kraft Group invited hundreds of lacrosse players from Foxborough to participate in the tournament's festivities and attend the Division I women's and Division I men's national championship games.

On Thursday, May 25, hundreds of Foxboro Youth Lacrosse players and their families greeted the Division I men's and women's lacrosse teams participating in championship weekend to a welcome reception at Gillette Stadium. The group even welcomed Patriots head coach Bill Belichick, a lacrosse enthusiast, high-fiving the New England sports legend as he entered the stadium to speak at the reception.

On Sunday, May 28, the Foxborough High School girls' lacrosse team attended the NCAA Women's Division I Lacrosse National Championship between Boston College and Maryland. The team watched the game from a Gillette Stadium suite courtesy of the Kraft family.

"The experience was unreal and gave the girls a great opportunity to watch two teams at the top of their game compete at such a high level," said FHS girls' lacrosse coach Britney Sherry. "Having the NCAA Championships played in Foxborough is such a privilege and was so beneficial to our team as we headed into the playoffs."

On Monday, May 29, Foxborough High School boys' lacrosse and Foxboro Youth Lacrosse players participated in the unfurling of a large American flag during the pregame ceremonies of the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse National Championship between Ohio State and Maryland. Following the on-field experience, the Warriors attended the men's title game; catching the action from a suite courtesy of the Kraft family.

"What an awesome opportunity for our boys to be able to experience an NCAA Lacrosse National Championship game right in their backyard at Gillette Stadium," said FHS boys' lacrosse coach Matt Noone. "Our guys got to see two excellent teams battle it out for a national title. It doesn't get much better than that."

The NCAA Championships will return to Gillette Stadium in May 2018.

CELEBRATING VOLUNTEERISM AT 5TH ANNUAL CLEAN UP FOXBORO DAY

The Town celebrated the efforts of more than 400 volunteers who helped pick up about 3.5 tons of trash during the town's fifth annual Clean Up Foxboro Day on April 29.

Patriots offensive line-man LaAdrian Waddle helped thanked volunteers during the post-event cook-out, signing autographs and posing for photos.

Resident Tim Duffy won the Kraft Group's donation of four suite tickets and VIP parking to the Aug. 25 Kenny Chesney concert at Gillette Stadium.

Revs salute local heroes

Before their Salute to Service match on May 21, New England Revolution players Matt Turner, Scott Caldwell, Cody Cropper and Josh Smith stopped by the Foxborough Public Safety Building to get a head start on honoring local first responders.

"They are our local heroes and they put their lives on the line every single day so that we can be safe and live the lives we want to live," said Turner.

The Revs delivered lunch and toured the firehouse and police departments.

Monster Jam truck driver reads at Boyden Library

With the Monster Jam truck series in town, the Kraft Group and Feld Entertainment, Inc. brought a special guest to read to children at the Boyden Library on June 8. Matt Pagliarulo, the driver of Monster Jam's "Jester," made a pit stop at the Foxborough library to read the book, "I'm a Monster don'Truck," answer questions, sign autographs and pose for photos. Every attendee also received tickets to the Monster Jam event.

PATS COACH THROWS OUT FIRST PITCH TO OPEN FYBSA SEASON

The Foxborough Youth Baseball & Softball Association celebrated opening day for the 2017 season on April 22 and honored two residents as its guests of honors.

Chad O'Shea, wide receiver coach for the Patriots, and Ed O'Leary, retired Foxborough Police Chief, were each honored by the FYBSA. They participated in the parade and threw out ceremonial first pitches.

"It was a great honor to throw out the first pitch and a nice way to recognize the accomplishments of our team in Super Bowl LI," said O'Shea, who has lived in Foxborough since 2009.

This spring, O'Shea teamed up with a fellow Foxborough resident and familiar face at Gillette Stadium to coach the Patriots, a youth baseball team comprised of 8-10 year olds in the AAA division.

"It's a pretty unique situation this year because [Patriots defensive line coach] Brendan Daly's son is on the team, so we are coaching this group together," O'Shea said.

Malcolm Mitchell brings reading rally to Charter School

Patriots wide receiver Malcolm Mitchell brought his "Read Across New England" Tour to the cafeteria of Foxborough Regional Charter School on March 21 to share the benefits and importance of reading and literacy with hundreds of local students.

Mitchell, an apathetic reader as a child, discovered the adventure - and magic - of reading in college at the University of Georgia. Fresh off a successful rookie season that ended with a Super Bowl championship, the 23-year-old Mitchell credits reading to his success both on and off the field and is sharing his story through the work of his youth literacy initiative, "Read With Malcolm."

In Foxborough, Mitchell delivered his message while providing each student with a copy of the children's book he wrote, "The Magician's Hat."

"It means a lot to be able to do this and share my story with these students," said Mitchell. "My mom always told me good things don't come easy and reading might not be easy for some of these students right now, but that doesn't mean they should stop. Hopefully by seeing the fun and magic in reading they will stick with it."

PATRIOTS SURPRISE FOXBOROUGH SCHOOLS WITH LOMBARDI TROPHY VISIT

Patriots Super Bowl LI hero James White and fellow running back Brandon Bolden took the team's fifth Lombardi Trophy on a surprise tour through Foxborough's five public schools on May 3. The players spoke to students about their experiences during Super Bowl LI and how the historic, 25-point comeback victory in overtime was a result of hard work, perseverance and the will to never give up on your dreams - similar to what it takes to succeed in the classroom.

Lombardi Trophy makes special

More than 50 local families of students with special education needs were treated to their own Patriots Super Bowl championship rally at the Hockmuck Area YMCA's Invensys Foxboro Branch on May 4.

The rally, hosted by the Foxborough Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) and the Hockmuck Area YMCA, gave Foxborough students and members of the YMCA who experience sensory processing challenges and sensitivities the chance to have their pictures taken with the Lombardi Trophy, Pat Patriot and Patriots Cheerleaders.

PARTY OF FIVE!

Patriots take 5 Lombardi Trophies to Founders Day Parade

The Patriots joined the Town in celebrating the history of Foxborough at this year's Founders Day on June 10 by participating in the parade. Patriots center David Andrews, defensive lineman Trey Flowers and defensive back Eric Rowe were this year's surprise guests, riding atop Foxborough Fire Engine 22 with the team's five Lombardi Trophies and sporting their Super Bowl LI championship rings, which they received during a ring ceremony at Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft's home the night before.

appearance at Foxboro YMCA

"It means so much to have a safe place for these kids to experience all of the excitement of a Patriots Super Bowl championship with their families," said Erin Bose, parent leader of Foxborough SEPAC.

Members of the YMCA's Volunteerism through Inclusive Partnerships (VIP) Club also participated in the rally. The VIP Club, a program created in 2016, provides opportunities for young adults with and without disabilities to volunteer to and give back to their community.

"The smiles on the faces of our Integration Initiative participants and their families as they got to experience the Lombardi Trophy made for a very special evening at our YMCA, creating memories that they will have for a very long time," said Ed Hurley, president of the Hockomock Area YMCA.

2017 FOXBOROUGH FOUNDERS DAY

RIDE OF A LIFETIME

Foxborough resident wins chance to ride with Patriots in Founders Day Parade

Gail Norwood has lived in Foxborough for 52 years and has held Patriots season tickets for 25 of them. She pays homage to her beloved team with a dedicated fan room in her Beach Street home filled with memorabilia from the five-time Super Bowl champions.

So when the Kraft Group offered one lucky Foxborough resident the opportunity to join the Patriots in this year's Founders Day Parade through a sweepstakes in last quarter's Partners in Patriotism newsletter, Norwood jumped at the chance.

"The Patriots have been a big part of my life growing up in Foxborough," Norwood said. "I couldn't pass up an opportunity that combines the town's annual Founders Day celebration with something that makes this town so great for me, the Patriots."

Norwood, who was one of more than 200 entrants in the Kraft Group's online raffle, said she was amazed when she learned she won and immediately invited her twin sister, Amy Fortier, and her friends, Carol Plausse and Diane Purcell, both of Franklin, to join her. The group's experience on June 10 began at Gillette Stadium where the women met and had their photos taken with Patriots players Trey Flowers, David Andrews and Eric Rowe. They also received Patriots gift bags containing Super Bowl LI programs, Patriots koozies, hats, a Tom Brady photo and a Super Bowl LI champion team photo, which each player signed.

From there, the group met up with the Foxborough Fire Department to climb aboard Engine 22. Norwood and her guests rode atop the fire engine in the parade with the Patriots players and the team's five Lombardi Trophies.

"There are not enough words in the dictionary to describe how I felt riding in the parade with the Patriots," Norwood said. "It was an absolutely amazing experience. Truly indescribable and something I will never forget."

Norwood praised Robert Kraft and the Kraft Group for their commitment to Foxborough.

"I've been amazed to see the level of commitment Mr. Kraft has made to the town of Foxborough and its residents since he and his family bought the team," Norwood said. "The Kraft Group is doing amazing work and making memories, including this one, which will last a lifetime."

RESIDENT PLAYBOOK

WIN A VIP EXPERIENCE TO PATRIOTS TRAINING CAMP

The Kraft Group is giving one Foxborough resident a VIP experience to a 2017 Patriots Training Camp practice on the fields behind Gillette Stadium as the team begins preparation for another exciting season.

The winner will receive four VIP passes to a mutually agreed upon Patriots Training Camp practice to watch the team from the Patriots VIP tent. The day continues with a tour of Gillette Stadium and four complimentary tickets to The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon, where you can view a dazzling array of interactive exhibits and artifacts that celebrate football in New England. The Hall's signature exhibit and premier photo opportunity is The Super Bowl Experience, where you can re-live the team's Super Bowl championships and view the Lombardi Trophies.

Details on how to enter this exclusive resident offer can be found in the photo caption.

HOW TO WIN

To enter to win this exclusive Foxborough resident experience, please email your name and address with "Resident Playbook" in the subject line to FoxboroResidents@GilletteStadium.com. One winner will be chosen at random and notified via email on Friday, July 21.
